Introduction

Beneficiary Selection Form - Option D (If Member Dies Before Retirement)

Pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 12(2)(d)

Form Last Revised: February, 2020

The Beneficiary Selection Form - Option D allows a member to select an eligible beneficiary to receive an allowance if the member dies before retirement. This is the Member Survivor allowance described at Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 12(2)(d) ("Option D").

The following needs to be kept in mind:

- This form must be filed with the retirement board.
- If you designate an eligible beneficiary on this form, and that beneficiary is living at the time of your death, the money in your annuity account will not be disbursed to anyone in a one-time, lump-sum payment, even if you have named them to receive such money on your Beneficiary Selection Form for Refund of Accumulated Deductions.
- You may name only one person as the Option D beneficiary. That one person may be your spouse, your former spouse who is not remarried at the time of your death, your child, your father, your mother, your sister or your brother.
- If you select a beneficiary other than the spouse to whom you are married at the time of your death, your selection on this form may be superseded by the eligible spouse under the provisions of Option D if you die before retirement.
- If your personal situation changes (e.g. divorce, a domestic relations order goes into effect, your beneficiary dies), you should file a new form with your retirement board.
- If you file a new Option D form with your retirement board, it will supersede any and all prior Option D forms previously filed by you.
- When you sign this form, it should be witnessed by a disinterested party.
- To cancel an Option D beneficiary designation prior to retirement, your written notice must be filed with the retirement board.
- This form becomes void upon your retirement.

IntroductionBeneficiary Selection Form for Refund of Accumulated Deductions (If Member Dies Before Retirement)

Pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 11(2)(c)

Form Last Revised: February, 2020

The Beneficiary Selection Form for Refund of Accumulated Deductions allows a member to select a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive payment of accumulated deductions and other payments due a member if the member dies before retirement, as described at Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32, Section 11(2)(c).

The following needs to be kept in mind:

- This form must be filed with the retirement board.
- If you have designated an eligible beneficiary who is alive at the time of your death on the Beneficiary Selection Form for Option D, then the money in your annuity account will not be disbursed to anyone in a one-time lump-sum payment, even if you have designated them on this form.
- Any person or entity may be designated as your Refund of Accumulated Deductions beneficiary under Section 11(2)(c). You may designate multiple beneficiaries and must indicate the percentage of the annuity account that you wish each beneficiary to receive. The percentages must total 100%.
- Your selection of a beneficiary on this form also may be superseded by an eligible spouse under the provisions of Option D.
- If your personal situation changes (e.g. divorce, a domestic relations order goes into effect, your beneficiary dies), you should file a new form with your retirement board.
- If you file a new Section 11(2)(c) form with your retirement board, it will supersede any and all prior Section 11(2)(c) forms filed previously by you.
- When you sign this form, it should be witnessed by a disinterested party.
- This form becomes void upon your retirement.

Information about Social Security Form SSA-1945 Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security

New legislation [Section 419(c) of Public Law 108-203, the Social Security Protection Act of 2004] requires State and local government employers to provide a statement to employees hired January 1, 2005 or later in a job not covered under Social Security. The statement explains how a pension from that job could affect future Social Security benefits to which they may become entitled.

Form SSA-1945, Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security, is the document that employers should use to meet the requirements of the law. The SSA-1945 explains the potential effects of two provisions in the Social Security law for workers who also receive a pension based on their work in a job not covered by Social Security. The Windfall Elimination Provision can affect the amount of a worker's Social Security retirement or disability benefit. The Government Pension Offset Provision can affect a Social Security benefit received as a spouse, surviving spouse, or an ex-spouse.

Employers must:

- . Give the statement to the employee prior to the start of employment;
- . Get the employee's signature on the form; and
- . Submit a copy of the signed form to the pension paying agency.

Social Security will not be setting any additional guidelines for the use of this form.

Copies of the SSA-1945 are available online at the Social Security website, www.socialsecurity.gov/online/ssa-1945.pdf. Paper copies can be requested by email at ofsm.oswm.rqct.orders@ssa.gov or by fax at 410-965-2037. The request must include the name, complete address and telephone number of the employer. Forms will not be sent to a post office box. Also, if appropriate, include the name of the person to whom the forms are to be delivered. The forms are available in packages of 25. Please refer to Inventory Control Number (ICN) 276950 when ordering.
